

I have recently joined the XM network and am in total support of their programming. I am dissappointed and appauled at the attempt of the local radio network to limit the opportunity of businesses to provide services that compete with the established market. This is the foundation the country was founded and should not be limited by a lobbying group trying to protect their self interest.